ONLY a baby small
Dropped from the skies;
Only a laughing face,
Two sunny eyes.

Only a tender flower,
Sent us to rear;
Only a life to love
While we are here.

The Baby

WHERE did you come from, baby dear?
Out of the everywhere into the here.

Where did you get your eyes so blue?
Out of the sky, as I came through.

What makes the light in them sparkle and spin?
Some of the starry spikes left in.

Where did you get that little tear?
I found it waiting when I got here.

What makes your forehead so smooth and high?
A soft hand stroked it as I went by.

What makes your cheek like a warm, white rose?
Something better than any one knows.

Whence that three-cornered smile of bliss?
Three angels gave me at once a kiss.

Where did you get that pearly ear?
God spoke, and it came out to hear.

Where did you get those arms and hands?
Love made itself into hooks and bands.

Feet, whence did you come, darling things?
From the same box as the cherub's wings.

How did they all just come to be you?
God thought about me, and so I grew.

But how did you come to us, you dear?
God thought of you, and so I am here.

—George MacDonald.

The Cradle Roll

"And so we claim the little ones,

The baby buds, as ours;

For, in a garden rightly kept,

Buds open into flowers.

"We welcome them with loving care,

We watch each tender soul;

Our garden's promise, well we know,

Lies in our Cradle Roll."

Cradle Song

Sleep, baby, sleep!
 Thy father's watching the sheep,
 Thy mother's shaking the dreamland tree,
 And down drops a little dream for thee.
 Sleep, baby, sleep!

Sleep, baby, sleep!
 The large stars are the sheep,
 The little stars are the lambs, I guess,
 The bright moon is the shepherdess.
 Sleep, baby, sleep!

Sleep, baby, sleep!
 And cry not like a sheep,
 Else the sheep-dog will bark and whine,
 And bite this naughty child of mine.
 Sleep, baby, sleep!

Sleep, baby, sleep!
 The Saviour loves his sheep;
 He is the Lamb of God on high
 Who, for our sakes, came down to die.
 Sleep, baby, sleep!

Sleep, baby, sleep!
 Away to tend the sheep;
 Away, thou sheep-dog fierce and wild,
 And do not harm my sleeping child.
 Sleep, baby, sleep!

—Elizabeth Prentiss.

Baby-land

How many miles to Baby-land?

Any one can tell;
Up one flight,
To your right—
Please to ring the bell.

What can you see in Baby-land?

Little folks in white,
Downy heads,
Cradle beds,
Faces pure and bright.

What do they do in Baby-land?

Dream, and wake and play,
Laugh and crow,
Shout and grow;
Jolly times have they.

What do they say in Baby-land?

Why, the oddest things;
Might as well
Try to tell
What a birdie sings.

Who is queen in Baby-land?

Mother, kind and sweet;
And her love,
Born above,
Guides the little feet.

—George Cooper.

Baby's First Prayer

"Now I lay me down to sleep ;
I pray thee, Lord, my soul to keep.
If I should die before I wake,
I pray thee, Lord, my soul to take."

Father's and Mother's Prayer

"God help us parents all to live aright,
And may our homes all love and truth enfold,
Since life for us no loftier aim can hold,
Than leading little children to the light."

A Word to Mother

Baby Skies

Would you know the baby's skies?
Baby's skies are mother's eyes.
Mother's eyes and smile together
Make the baby's pleasant weather.

Mother, keep your eyes from tears,
Keep your heart from foolish fears,
Keep your lips from dull complaining,
Lest the baby think 'tis raining.

A Word to Father

That Little Chap o' Mine

To feel his little hand in mine, so clinging and so warm;

To know he thinks me strong enough to keep him safe from harm;

To see his simple faith in all that I can say and do—
It sorts o' shames a fellow, but it makes him better, too;

And I'm trying hard to be the man he fancies me to be,

Because I have this chap at home who thinks the world o' me.

I would not disappoint his trust for anything on earth,

Nor let him know how little I just naturally am worth,

But, after all, it's easier that brighter road to climb,

With the little hands behind me to push me all the time.

And I reckon I'm a better man than what I used to be

Because I have this chap at home who thinks the world o' me.
