Dear Falks -

Recd your letter of the 23rd to day it seems that they cant make the trip in any less than a mo. I was surprised to learn that up to the 23rd you had not heard from me. When they do begin to come suppose they will come in rather large bunches.

Every thing here is pretty well now but guess we will leave here in a short time.

I am on special duty now I like
the work fine, have been asked to go

so will begin to night. Yes Dad
I wish we could write more freely
you can't imagine
how hard it is to write a letter and
keep within the bounds. In other words it doesn't

Dad, if you remember the last sentence
