July 8, 1915.

Dear Uncle Chas.

How are you? We are all right. I think ~~Ed~~ Emily will be out next week. One day a hard wind came and blew our windmill down and we have been having to pump by hand but as it ~~had~~ happened to blow east. Pop went in to town this morning to get a pump jack we got one of your Engines to pump water with. The hired man that we have is Ben Perish. The other day Fanny went to Indpls to see her folks she said that she was coming home that night and she didn't and Ben was waited untill twelve o'clock and came home and the next morning Ben came down and said he was going to get in after her and she said that she came the night before and Ben wasn't there and she ~~was~~ went back and when she came back she brought her mother home and gave her fine kick. Aunt Edith says that Emily is fatter than ever.

If I tub has got a berry. we saw him go by the other day. Nellie has a little colt it is about 6 weeks old. ~~For~~ Jacassine has a colt it is about a week old.

I am still in the duck business. I have ~~about~~ 17 little ducks.
I believe that you will have to send me some wooden shoes because I wear my shoes out ^{fast} and get them. I have had to spend about all of the duck egg money for shoes. This is the threshing week.

Yours Mary P.
