Thursday - Still at Spokane, W. & I are plagued up with cold - they are waiting for letters from home, but the chance is slim - such a crowd, in Missoula over a thousand had to camp in the streets with no cover we have fared very well, ~~but~~ but the trains are delayed so that the train is due in about 3:30 PM on Aug 6 ANE 1909 and ready to leave there and if our sneezing doesn't let up soon W. & I will come home.
