"The Interurban Road to District Success"

MAE MASTEN '13

The country-school teacher who fares to and fro,
'Twixt breakfast and supper to bring home the dough,
Must needs have the courage to cope with cold feet,
Cold lunches,—and each day late cars she must meet.

Response.....PROF. ORVILLE C. PRATT '97-'07

We wonder if he sometimes wishes he were back with us,
We wonder if he ever thinks of how he used to hustle back and forth between the grades to keep us all in line.
We wonder if he likes to be invited back to dine,
Of Course He Does.

Vocal—Selected.....EDITH DARNELL BOND

Reading.....WINIFRED WILSON '11

It may be poesy, drama or song,
We respect it because it's artistic.

"The Feminine Factor"

MATTIE MCADAMS ZOERCHER '86

Consider the women in the field, how they work,
They spin not, neither do they shirk—
They use their brains where labors lurk.

Piano Duet } GERALDINE WHITE BLESSING '97
                  } KATE HARGRAVE SMITH '03

"The Days of Long Ago"

REV. JOSEPH N. GREEN '86

Why do the days go by so fast?
They hurry to join The Lovely Past.

"Good for What Ails You"

DR. MURRAY NATHAN HADLEY '92

Sing a song o' six pence,—A sachel full o' dope,
Here comes the busy doctor-man—"Is there any hope?"
