Tuesday Morn

My dearest little Girl & Sweetheart Janet,

I see you have not answered my letter as yet.

I was coming up last Wednesday but I decided not to as Nennie didn't want to go to June's so I couldn't come.

Well, I suppose you heard that Broyles house was robbed. They took a new rifle and the radio Coston's gave them. Florence said her & and her Mother had gone some place to see about picking berries. And when they crossed the railroad track a big dust rose going south from the house.

When they got home those things were gone. It happened Saturday afternoon & Sat. morn. Luthar was really worked up. I didn't get to see Florence as I went to the show & as I came out Florence went in so I didn't get to talk to her.

Did Florence write & tell you she lost her wrist watch in the oats field.

Well, Billy Walton was over and they were going after the cows. Billy began to cry (as usual) and Florence couldn't stand to hear him & carried him. When she went to set him down he knocker his wrist watch off. She said she cried & cried and the next white she found it. Mrs. Broyles said they had a hard time finding it.

Janet, I am coming up while they are thrashing. But, if you have a chance come down here first. Can you come down Fri. of this week & have them come after you Saturday. The way down here (in case you don't know) is come to where Swellan's store was & turn south. Come to the second road going west & turn. Go to the cross roads and turn south & go to the first lane & drive down. If we are not home sit down & wait for me. (I didn't think you knew the way because you don't come down.)

I will have to start watching gates as they are going to start hauling gravel

They have stopped dipping now & moved to Cartersburg. When I watch gates I will get paid so that don't worry me.

I am still sewing. Making a slip.

Did you have a big 4th. Well, we dove all afternoon & every place ^{we} they went they've gone. We had fireworks that nite.

We canned cherries last week.
I hate to can them.

Well I had better stop & keep the news
till you come down.

Your dearest sweetheart
Jake.
